

AUDIO GUIDES FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Crave a good story? Now you can choose a favorite work of art, listen to a bit of history, look closely, and hear what makes it special. Free! Just present your valid New York City public school ID at the Audio Guide desk in the Great Hall.

Free Audio Guides for New York City public high school students are made possible by the May and Samuel Rudin Family Foundation, Inc.

Audio Guide supported by

Bloomberg Philanthropies

Cover: Gordon H. Coster (American, 1906–1988), [Portrait/Self-Portrait with Speed Graphic Camera], ca. 1932; gelatin silver print; Ford Motor Company Collection, Gift of Ford Motor Company and John C. Waddell, 1987 (1987.1100.361)

TEEN SCENE

Visit our Facebook page!
The Metropolitan Museum of Art Teens

Check out the Met's Teen Blog at www.metmuseum.org/learn/for-teens/teen-blog.

Above: Paul Gauguin (French, 1848–1903), The Siesta, ca. 1892–94; oil on canvas; The Walter H. and Leonore Annenberg Collection, Gift of Walter H. and Leonore Annenberg, 1993, Bequest of Walter H. Annenberg, 2002 (1993.400.3)

TEEN PASS

THE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART

TEEN PASS

Check your backpack at the door, and travel around the world and across time at the Met! All you need for unlimited free admission is this Teen Pass and a valid middle or high school ID. Use this pass and keep it in your wallet for access to some of the world's greatest art, anytime the mood strikes you.

Well, almost anytime—check our hours at www.metmuseum.org. Enjoy your visit!

This Teen Pass may not be used for school and other organized group admissions.

The Teen Pass for Middle and High School Students is made possible by the Estate of Lillian Hirschmann.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art
1000 Fifth Avenue at 82nd Street
New York, NY 10028-0198

TEEN PROGRAMS

Get inspired by the unexpected! Peer into period rooms, make friends over Monet, or discuss Egypt with experts.

Join other teens in the Met's Teen Programs: gallery conversations, studio workshops, sketching sessions, and special events, all led by artists and Museum staff. The bonus? It's all free!

INTERNSHIPS FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

If you're a New York City–area high school student interested in developing valuable professional skills and learning about museum careers and great works of art, apply for a paid internship at the Met. You can get the inside scoop on jobs in conservation, education, photography, exhibition design, curatorial departments, and more.

Teen Programs are made possible by New York Life Foundation, Stanley R. Stangren, The Enoch Foundation, Beal Family Foundation, Constance Goulandris Foundation, and Milton & Sally Avery Arts Foundation, Inc. Additional support for High School Internships is provided by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin H. Schein, Joseph and Sylvia Slifka Fund for High School Internships, The Pinkerton Foundation, Gregory and Susan Palm, The Billy Rose Foundation, Inc., and gifts in memory of Joe Rothenberg.

Teen Programs are free but reservations are encouraged. To learn more about programs and to reserve, or to apply for an internship online, go to www.metmuseum.org/learn/for-teens.